

Route 11 Potato Chips-Sweet Potato-5 oz (Seasonal)

Made with certified organic sweet potatoes. When Route 11 cooked their first batch of sweet potato chips back in the early '90s, they were so incredibly delicious and beautiful, it was unbelievable, that nobody had been making sweet potato chips. They're the healthiest vegetable on the planet. They're indigenous to the USA. It didn't take Route 11 long to figure out why such an incredible vegetable was being underutilized and mostly relegated to Thanksgiving. They're not easy to chip. They need lots of attention, which is an undesirable attribute when doing large scale production. So, this is where being a small fry has its advantages! These sweet potato chips are incredible, delicious, award winning and healthy (Route 11 sources as many sweet potatoes as they can get from the organically certified farm, Quail Cove, located on the eastern shore of Virginia). All natural. Gluten free.
