

Uplands Cheese Pleasant Ridge Reserve-Wheel

Pleasant Ridge Reserve is an aged, alpine-style cheese. Like the coveted, alpage versions of Beaufort and Gruyere, Pleasant Ridge is made only in the summer months, while cows are grazing fresh pasture. The sweetness born from the grass-fed milk combines with the savory flavors developed by the cheese's natural, washed rind. The resulting complexity – rich and salty, with a long, fruity finish – has made Pleasant Ridge one of the most distinctive and celebrated cheeses in the country.
