A Blue Ribbon Winner made from a blend of Aged Brick and White Cheddar, this delectable spread from Wisconsin will keep you coming back for more. It is best served on crackers, or spread on your favorite sandwich which includes both grilled cheese and burgers.

Cheesemakers first produced Colby, a close relative of Cheddar, in the central Wisconsin town of Colby in 1885. Similar in flavor to Cheddar, Colby is softer and has a more open texture and higher moisture content. Cheesemakers spray the curds with cold water and stir them while they are still in the vat to prevent the curds from knitting together. This procedure gives Colby a more elastic texture than Cheddar. Slice for sandwiches; shred into casseroles, or cube for snacks.

Brick cheese is a Wisconsin original. The flavor changes from mild to sweet. Mild Brick Cheese is a young cheese that is mild and buttery sweet. Slice for sandwiches, shred for casseroles, or enjoy it on its own!

One whiff of the intense Chaumes cow's milk cheese is sure to inspire the senses. This washed rind cheese hails from the historic foothills of the French Pyrénées Atlantique. The bold, full-bodied nuttiness creates a perfect harmony with its smooth texture. Made using monastic techniques, Chaumes develops its distinct orange rind from multiple washes and delicate maturation. After four weeks, the popular cheese is ready to be grilled on bread, melted atop farm fresh vegetables, and washed down with a glass of chilled Chardonnay. Try it on chicken tostadas for a super bowl snack!

Many people enjoy the robust flavors that come from the line of Old Quebec cheddars, but few realize the time and attention it takes to bring this flavor experience to their table. The process starts at a rural cheese plant in the province of Québec, Canada. Cows grazed in the Saint Lawrence River Valley provide some of the highest grade milk for production, the first essential ingredient in cheese. Then a carefully guarded, proprietary starter culture and cheese making process yields what could be an exceptional cheddar.

Old Québec

VINTAGE CHEDDAR

7 Year Reserve Cheddar

During grading, a small number of cheddar blocks are identified as exceptional candidates for a unique level of aging... pushing the cheddar out to 7 years aged and more. This "Reserve cheddar" is available in very limited quantities. A small taste will bring big, complex flavors to enjoy. Pair with your favorite complementary beverage or enjoy by itself.

Whether you are sticking to that New Year's resolution or partaking in some game day snacking, Picnic Gourmet's got you covered. These five unique, savory spreads are a delightful addition to all kinds of snacking.

Herbed Goat Cheese: Cool, smooth & creamy, Herbed Goat Cheese is labne blended with tangy goat cheese and a blend of four different herbs. Not only is perfect for spreading on a sandwich or enhancing a cheese plate, but it's also delicious stirred into pasta or topped over a piece of grilled seafood.

Tandoori Garlic: Intensely flavored with Picnic's own Tandoori spice blend, Tandoori Garlic has a warm, toasty flavor with a nice amount of heat at the finish. As a dip it's a nice contrast with cool, crisp, veggies or pita crisps. Sauced over grilled chicken or shrimp, it's a spicy, Indian glaze with a creamy, tangy, zip!

Moroccan Cilantro: The exotic spice blend in Moroccan Cilantro gives it a rich, warm flavor, while the cilantro lends a cool, refreshing, and slight citrus taste to this fan-favorite spread. Not only is it a delicious, healthy, dip, it's also perfect for saucing prepared foods like seafood & lamb or adding fresh flavor to a sandwich or wrap!

Parmesan: The rich, sharp flavor of parmesan blended with cool, tangy labne makes a rich, decadent spread as well as a cook's favorite. Stir it into warm pasta, toss it with steamed veggies or serve it over a baked potato. Picnic's Parmesan spread also makes a delicious sauce for burgers & steaks.

Chipotle Sage: Smoky and rich flavors of fire roasted chipotles are blended with herbs and spices for this creamy, yet spicy spread. Serve it with tacos & quesadillas or spread it on a sandwich. Amazing as a finishing sauce for grilled chicken & steak or on a hamburger!

Chuck Siegel, Charles Chocolates' founder, has always held very strong opinions about what makes great chocolate and those opinions have guided the development and production of every product made at Charles Chocolates. Key is the belief that chocolates are food--fresh food--and as such they should be made with only the finest ingredients. This philosophy has resulted in an obsessive dedication to finding the best chocolates, the finest cream and butter, fresh herbs, fruits and nuts, and not including anything that doesn't belong.

Roquefort (rohk-for) is the zenith of blues and one of France's national treasures. Société Roquefort is made with raw milk from ewes that graze on the rugged hills in the Southwest of France. It is aged for a minimum of 90 days in the natural caves of Roquefort that were created 50 million years ago. This great cheese was granted PDO (Protected Designation of Origin) status in 1925. This guarantees that the origin of the milk and the production process adheres to a region and traditional methods.

Société Roquefort can be enjoyed on its own, with bread, or accompanied by apples, dried fruits and walnuts. Its creaminess can be enhanced by mixing it with butter. One of the great wine & cheese pairings is Sauterne wine with Roquefort. The combination of honeyed sweetness and salty tang is delightful. It is possible to replace the Sauternes with a moelleux wine from the Loire, Bergerac or Jurançon regions or a California Sauvignon Blanc.

Société Roquefort has an ivory-colored paste with emerald-green veining and a creamy, moist texture. Its rich, intense sheep milk flavor balances the blue mold aroma creating the magic taste that made Roquefort famous the world over.
