Valbreso sheep's milk cheese is a fresh cheese whose curd is preserved in salt brine, which gives it a characteristic flavor and specific texture. Made from 100% ewe's milk that is left over from the production of Roquefort, Valbreso Sheep milk cheese is mild and creamy without the bitter aftertaste often associated with other Fetas. Rich and tangy with a firm consistency and melt-in-your mouth texture, Valbreso Sheep milk cheese is best appreciated in the summer.

Castello Havarti recipes have been creatively crafted in Nr Vium, a town in the middle of Denmark. This cheese is lusciously smooth, balanced and mild enough to suit all palates. When ageing, Castello Havarti becomes slightly harder and develops a curious crunch coming from the protein crystals that start forming in our cheese. A real multi-faceted experience for your taste buds.

Many people enjoy the robust flavors that come from the line of Old Quebec cheddars, but few realize the time and attention it takes to bring this flavor experience to their table. The process starts at a rural cheese plant in the province of Québec, Canada. Cows grazed in the Saint Lawrence River Valley provide some of the highest grade milk for production, the first essential ingredient in cheese. Then a carefully guarded, proprietary starter culture and cheese making process yields what could be an exceptional cheddar.

7 Year Reserve Cheddar

During grading, a small number of cheddar blocks are identified as exceptional candidates for a unique level of aging... pushing the cheddar out to 7 years aged and more. This "Reserve cheddar" is available in very limited quantities. A small taste will bring big, complex flavors to enjoy. Pair with your favorite complementary beverage or enjoy by itself.

Ezra's Feta is creamy and smooth with a very authentic flavor. Unlike the traditional style feta which is very crumbly and in many cases, sold as crumbled Feta, Ezra's Feta is sold as chunks or cubes that can be used in salads, sandwiches, pizza, pasta, baking, cooking and many other options.

Ezra's Feta is sold in a "Stay Fresh Cup" with brine to maintain freshness and flavors. The cheese is kept in a small basket in the brine that can be lifted and hung on top of the cup, out of the brine for convenient use. When finished enjoying the Feta you can lower it back into the brine to maintain freshness at all times.
